Every Company to Be at Raleigh in Honor of the Presi-

Will Deliver An Address at the Fair Grounds-Goldsboro Wants a Depot.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., September 26.—Ad-jutant-General T. R. Robertson arrived here last night, and was busy in his office in the State Capitol to-day working out the details for the assembling of the various companies of the North Carolina National Guard on Thursday of lima National Guard on Thursday of fair week, to participate in the reception of President Roosevelt when he visits the State Pair. General Robertson says he feels confident that nearly every company in the State will accept the invitation to come to Raleigh for this occasion. A committee from the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce is meeting with excellent success in raising a subscription to a fund of $600 necessary to provide provisions for the companies while in camp. The members of the companies who decide to come will have only to buy their special rate tickets for the trip.

DEPOT FOR MOLDSBORO.
The cluzens of Goldsboro have applied oo the Corporation Commission for an order compelling the Atlantic Coast Line. there. The commission is advised by officials of the three companies that they will hold a conference very soon to. If possible, agree on some basis whereon they may erect such a building. If they cannot agree, the commissioners say, they will take a hand and see that the union station is provided.

Counsel have agreed that the trial of the four attendants charged with having caused the death of Thomas Nall, the patient at the State Hospital for the planen, shall begin Thursday of this week. H. A. London and R. H. Hayes, of Pittsboro, have been retained as counsoi for the prosecution by Nall's family week. H. A. London and R. H. Hayes, of Pittsboro, have been retained as counsol for the prosecution by Nall's family to assist the solicitor.

The weekly buildin of the crop condition in this State says tobacco is all cut and the curing continues, the conditions being only fair, much of it being burned and specked and the remsander lacks weight, although of good color and texture. Cotton is slightly improved Heavy rains have done some damage to open cotton and retarded picking, her will be no top-crop, owing to shedding. WAS TRIED THRICE.

The argument of Fifth District cases was taken up in the Supreme Court today, the principal State case being the State, vs. Lucas, from Sampson county. The defendant was charged with an assault and battery, with serious injury. A justice of the peace first bound him over to Superior Court; then changed his mind and decided that he had jurisdiction of the offense, imposing a fine.

over to Superior Court; then changed mind and decided that he had jurisdiction of the offense, imposing a fine. Notwithstanding this, the Superior Court arraigned Lucas for trial, he pleading former conviction. This was overruled by the judge, and the defendant appealed. The latest information regarding the visit of President Roosevelt to the State Fair is that he will arrive on his special train at 1 A. M. Thursday morning and remain on his car until 8 o'clock. Then he will be escorted to the Governor's Mansion for breakfast. He will proceed to the Fair Grounds at 11 o'clock and deliver his address at 12. A luncheon will be served thereafter for the _resident and party, the fair marshals and the members of the North Carolina Agricultural Society. The President will probably leave Raleigh about 1 P. M.

NEWSPAPER PEOPLE ACTING AS PRINTERS

Editors and Reporters Take the Places of Stikers in Charlotte.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., September 26.—
There is practically no change in the strike situation here to-day. The Observer made its appearance in good form this morning, and the Chronicle and News were gotten out this afternoon, as usual. Your correspondent was in error in stating that the printers employed by the News struck yesterday. Owing to the absence of Mr. W. C. Dpwd. the publisher, from the city, the men employed by the News awaited his return to-night to present their demands.

It is understood that the News is standing pat, and that the printers will not show up for work ito-morrow morning. In this event, every union printer in Charlotte will be out to-morrow. The stereotypers and pressmen are not affected, they having a two-years' contract with the United Typothetae.

A number of non-union men have been secured to take the places of strikers, and others are expected daily. The local publishers announce that they are in that fight to stay, and that within two weeks, at most, they will have practically all positions filled with non-union men. Editors and reporters are bending to the emergency with a will, taking the situation cheerfully, and all three papers will be issued without a break. CHARLOTTE, N. C., September

TWO WELL-KNOWN MEN-FOUGHT IN CHARLOTTE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., September 26.—
A sensational fight, occurred on the streets here this morning between R. H. Bethel, bookkeeper for the Charlotte Brick Company, and L. N. Webster, a well known traveling man. The two met, had words and Webster attacked Bethel. The latter, though a smaller man, got the former down and used a brickhat actively until the pair was separated. Before Webster could recover Bethel had fled. The matter will be aired in the Police Court.
